

The Countryman
June 2008

TR shows stunning new homes

TR Homes held a 'grand opening' of a brand new display village earlier this month.

Located at TR's 105 Kelvin Road premises in Maddington, the village comprises three stunning new display homes — Breakaway, Peninsula and Bushland.

All TR homes feature architecturally designed floor plans, which have been created to enhance the WA lifestyle.

In addition, TR's exclusive range of stunning elevations provides an unparalleled choice in the WA industry.

The three new display homes showcase the best of style and innovation in the residential transportable homes industry.

TR Homes has WA's largest range of quality manufactured homes to suit all lifestyles and budgets, from a terrific weekender to a fabulous family home.

Available for delivery in almost every part of the State and from only $88,000, TR Homes is really 'creating innovation, building value'.

TR Homes is part of the Alcock Brown-Neaves Group of companies, Australia's biggest residential building group. As the largest supplier of manufactured homes to the residential market, the company is totally committed to providing quality housing to the WA public.

For more than 35 years, TR Homes has constructed and delivered wonderful homes to almost every part of the State, from Karratha to Esperance, from Kalgoorlie to Perth. It is truly WA's 'local' building company.

By using the latest technology, more can be achieved with transportable homes than ever before. You, your family and friends will be amazed with the final outcome.

The design, unique features, the craftsmanship and the feel and flow as you walk through will leave you feeling it was one of the best decisions you ever made. It'll be a place you'll be proud to call home.

The three new display homes showcase the best of style and innovation in the residential transportable homes industry.